

Application Scoring Rubric 2018

Applicant: _____

Selection Criteria	Detailed Criteria	Score = 0	Score = 1	Score = 2	Reviewer Score
Feasibility	Scope	The scope of the project does not align with the goals of the Research Sprints.	The scope of the project somewhat aligns with the goals of the Research Sprints.	The scope of the project perfectly aligns with the goals of the Research Sprints.
	Outcomes	The outcomes of the project are not achievable and tangible within the week timeline.	The outcomes of the project are somewhat achievable and tangible within the week timeline.	The outcomes of the project are highly achievable and tangible within the week timeline.
Impact	Significance	The applicant does not demonstrate the importance of the project to their research or teaching.	The applicant somewhat demonstrates the importance of the project to their research or teaching.	The applicant clearly demonstrates the importance of the project to their research or teaching.
	Broad Implications	The proposal does not demonstrate how the project has broader implications for other faculty, the university, or the community.	The proposal somewhat demonstrates how the project has broader implications for other faculty, the university, or the community.	The proposal clearly demonstrates how the project has broader implications for other faculty, the university, or the community.
	Originality	The project idea is not original or does not use a new approach to the research topic.	The project idea is somewhat original or uses a moderately new approach to the research topic.	The project idea is highly original or uses a new approach to the research topic.
Fit with the Libraries	Partnership	The proposed project will not make good use of UMN Libraries knowledge and skill set and will not benefit the Libraries overall.	The proposed project will make good use of UMN Libraries knowledge and skill set and make some benefit the Libraries overall.	The proposed project will make excellent use of UMN Libraries knowledge and skill set and benefit the Libraries overall.

TOTAL SCORE _____